

Module 2 - Quiz

1. What is Virtual Box?
 - a. It is pre-configured at the hardware level
 - b. It is installed on top of an operating system for applications to share resources
 - c. It is installed on top of an operating system to run multiple operating system and share resources
 - d. It allows us to run only MAC on a Windows PC
2. How to install Oracle Virtual Box on your computer?
 - a. Go to virtualbox.edu, go down to "Virtualbox platform packages", select the package based on your operating system, download and install
 - b. Download the ISO image and execute it
 - c. Go to virtualbox.org, go down to "Virtualbox platform packages", select the package based on your operating system, download and install
 - d. All of the above
3. Which of the following are Linux distributions?
 - a. CentOS, Redhat, SUSE
 - b. Windows, CentOS, Redhat, SUSE
 - c. CentOS, Redhat, SUSE, Debian, Ubuntu, MAC
 - d. CentOS, Redhat, SUSE and VMWare
4. A virtual machine can run which of the following?
 - a. Operating system
 - b. Database
 - c. Application
 - d. Storage
5. What is Linux Open Source?
 - a. It cannot be copied
 - b. It cannot be replicated
 - c. The programming source code is available and cannot be edited
 - d. The programming source code is available which can be copied and then it can be edited
6. The Linux installation wizard ask you the following questions
 - a. Language, Hostname, Network, Packages, File partition, root password
 - b. Language, Hostname, and the number of employees
 - c. Language, Hostname, Network, Packages, File partition, and RAID
 - d. All of the above
7. What are the different ways to install an Operating system?
 - a. ISO image
 - b. Disc
 - c. Network install

d. All of the above

8. Which of the following is not true regarding VMware player and Oracle VirtualBox?
- a. They both allow you to run a "virtual" or guest operating system (OS) inside your main (host) OS
 - b. They both are virtual machine software suites for x86 and x64 computers
 - c. Both are free software
 - d. VMWare player is used for Windows OS and Oracle VirtualBox is used for only Linux OS
9. What are the 2 Linux Desktops
- a. KDE and GNome
 - b. KDE and Windows
 - c. GNome and LinuxGUI
 - d. None of the above
10. Redhat Linux is enterprise level operating system and provides
- a. patches to paid customers
 - b. technical support to paid customers
 - c. bug fix/patches and technical support to paid customers
 - d. bug fixes/patches and technical support to paid customers but eventually updates becomes available to everyone else
 - e. updates, bug fixes, patches and technical support to everyone